Walk 1 : Around Bole Hill 2.5 miles / 4km – Approx. 1.5 hours

Enjoy the moors and the woods on this lovely round walk. The steep climb at the start is rewarded with great views when you reach the moors.

To start, head up through the farm, keeping to the left and exit onto Moss Road through the top gate. Continue up Moss Road.

- At the top of Moss Road turn left up the hill between two large rocks marking the track.
 (As you climb the hill admire the views across to Sheffield behind you and across Derbyshire to your left.)
- 2. At the top of the track go through the gate onto the moors. (There is a stile to your right you can detour up to the top of Bole Hill to admire the views this is also a good place to see Red Deer at sunrise or sunset)
 - In 50 yards turn right and go through a gate. The footpath drops down and across a small stream before skirting around Wimble Holme Hill.
- 3. The path turns right through a gate and across a small bridge. Keep the wall to your right and walk to the Seven Sycamores.
- 4. At the Seven Sycamores turn right through the gate and follow the path down the hill. Take care as the path is rocky underfoot.
- 5. At the bottom of the hill the path opens out with a couple of benches to your left. This is a good place to sit and admire the view. When ready continue down the hill keeping to the right. The path crosses an old bridge and goes through some beautiful old beech woodland.
- 6. At the end of the path you go through a gate into a small carpark at the top of Strawberry Lea Lane. Follow the road around Taylors Hill.
- 7. At the bottom of the hill you enter the hamlet of Totley Bents. Turn right onto Lane Head Road and continue to the farm on your right in 200 yards.
